Reminder — Certification Course Almost Here

Time is running out! There are still some openings for the first TMRS Correspondent Certification course of 2012, offered April 17-18 in Austin at the TMRS headquarters. City Correspondents and those who administer TMRS benefits are highly encouraged to sign up for this comprehensive training course. The course, presented by members of the Travel Team, gives our city partners everything they need to help employees understand the plan. The complementary manual highlights common issues and explains the TMRS forms.

A course registration form, agenda, and hotel information and map are available online for the April course. TMRS has reserved a block of rooms at the Doubletree Hotel – University Area (1617 North IH-35) for $108 per night, government rate. Time is also running out for this block of rooms, which will be held open through April 6; call 512-479-4000 or 800-222-8733 (central reservations). If you have any questions, send an e-mail to communications@tmrs.com.

Website Maintenance Planned for Weekend of March 31-April 1

No April foolin' — the TMRS website, including the City Portal and MyTMRS, will be offline for maintenance this coming weekend beginning at approximately 7 a.m., Saturday, March 31. We will restore service as soon as possible after maintenance is complete. TMRS apologizes for any inconvenience this may cause you.
