GOVERNOR APPOINTS OAKLEY TO TEXAS MUNICIPAL RETIREMENT SYSTEM BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Governor Rick Perry has appointed Julie Oakley of Spicewood to the Texas Municipal Retirement System Board of Trustees for a term to expire February 1, 2013. Ms. Oakley was appointed to complete the term of retiring Board Member Carolyn Linér of San Marcos. The six-member Board of Trustees oversees the Texas Municipal Retirement System, which is responsible for providing a secure retirement benefit plan for Texas cities.

Ms. Oakley is a Certified Public Accountant, Certified Investment Officer, and Finance Director for the City of Lakeway. She is a member of the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Government Finance Officers Association of Texas. A native of Midland, Ms. Oakley received her degree in Accounting from the University of Texas of the Permian Basin. Before coming to the City of Lakeway, she was employed in public accounting firms, at an educational agency, as Chief Financial Officer and County Auditor for Midland County, as a Financial Analyst for the Texas Association of Counties, and as Senior Financial Analyst for Travis County.

TMRS is a public retirement system with more than 139,000 members in more than 830 cities. The System pays benefits to more than 34,000 retired Texans and administers a $16 billion trust fund.
