GOVERNOR REAPPOINTS DAVID LANDIS TO TEXAS MUNICIPAL RETIREMENT SYSTEM BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Texas Governor Greg Abbott has reappointed David Landis of Perryton to the Texas Municipal Retirement System (TMRS) Board of Trustees for a term ending February 1, 2021. The six-member Board of Trustees oversees TMRS, which is responsible for providing retirement benefit plans for Texas cities.

During his first term on the Board, Mr. Landis was involved in legislative discussions, and voted on several actuarial changes, the hiring of a chief investment officer for TMRS, and investment diversification decisions.

Mr. Landis is the city manager of Perryton. As a certified public manager, he is involved with several organizations, including the International City Management Association, the Panhandle Water Planning Group, and the Texas and Panhandle City Management associations. He has been active in the Texas City Managers Association, serving as its president in 2011.

Mr. Landis received his Bachelor of Science degree from New Mexico State University in civil engineering technology and is a graduate of Texas Tech University's Certified Public Manager Program. He joined the city of Perryton in 1983 as director of public works and assumed his current position of city manager in 1986.

TMRS is a public retirement system with more than 149,000 employee accounts in 860 cities. The System pays benefits to over 48,500 retired Texans and their survivors and administers a $23.7 billion trust fund (12/31/14 CAFR).
