Chief Investment Officer T.J. Carlson Accepts MOSERS CIO Position

TMRS Chief Investment Officer T.J. Carlson has resigned effective September 7, 2021, to assume the same position with the Missouri State Employees' Retirement System (MOSERS).

TMRS Executive Director David Wescoe said, "TJ is an experienced and talented investment professional. During his seven-plus years with TMRS, TJ's many accomplishments include building a first-rate investment team and growing Trust Fund assets from $23.8 billion to $34.5 billion. Everyone associated with TMRS wishes TJ and his family nothing but the best in the future."

Carlson added, "I have truly enjoyed my time at TMRS, working with our excellent Board and the entire TMRS team to deliver on all our promises to our Members and participating cities. I am proud of all that we have accomplished during my tenure, and I know I am leaving the investment program in a very good place."

About TMRS

The Texas Municipal Retirement System (TMRS) is a statewide public retirement system established in 1947 to provide retirement, disability and death benefits to employees and retirees of TMRS participating cities. For more information, visit tmrs.com.
