TEXAS SENATE CONFIRMS THE REAPPOINTMENT OF JIM PARRISH TO THE TEXAS MUNICIPAL RETIREMENT SYSTEM BOARD OF TRUSTEES

On Wednesday, May 1, the Texas Senate confirmed the Governor's reappointment of Jim Parrish of Plano, Texas, to the Texas Municipal Retirement System (TMRS) Board of Trustees for a term ending February 1, 2023. The six-member Board of Trustees oversees TMRS, which is responsible for providing retirement benefit plans for Texas cities. Members of the TMRS Board of Trustees are also participating members of TMRS and employees of TMRS cities.

During his tenure on the Board, Mr. Parrish has represented TMRS at the Texas Legislature, championed the System's strategic plan initiative, and voted on several actuarial changes and investment diversification decisions. He served as Board Chair from 2016 through 2018.

Mr. Parrish is the Deputy City Manager for the City of Plano. He is the past president of the National Public Employers Labor Relations Association and the Texas Municipal Human Resources Association. In addition, he is a member of the Texas City Managers Association, Leadership Plano, and Leadership North Texas.

Mr. Parrish's certifications include Society for Human Resource Management SHRM-SCP, Certified Public Manager CPM, Certified Labor Relations Professional CLRP and ICMA-CP. Parrish received a Bachelor's of Business Administration and a Master's of Business Administration from West Texas A&M University.

TMRS is a statewide multi-employer retirement plan with more than 112,350 contributing member accounts in 888 cities. The System pays benefits to over 60,650 retired Texans and their survivors and administers a $27.6 billion trust fund.
