TEXAS MUNICIPAL RETIREMENT SYSTEM DEDICATES NEW BOARD ROOM TO H. FRANK SIMPSON

On June 24, 2016, the TMRS Board of Trustees dedicated the new Board of Trustees meeting room at the TMRS Building in Austin to the late H. Frank Simpson. Mr. Simpson, who was City Manager of College Station, served on the TMRS Board from 2003 until his untimely passing in 2013.

H. Frank Simpson was Chair of the TMRS Board of Trustees in 2006 and 2012, and he presided over many important decisions – including legislative and actuarial changes – that reshaped and improved the retirement system.

In making the dedication, Mr. Jim Parrish, the current TMRS Board Chair and Deputy City Manager for the City of Plano, said, “Frank was fair, even-handed, and direct. He was never afraid to ask tough questions and push for the best answers. He left an outstanding record of public service.”

Mr. Simpson’s widow, Kelly, and their three children, Price, Courtnie, and Seth Simpson (shown above, with Board Chair Jim Parrish, right), were present at the dedication. A resolution, portrait, and engraved sign were installed near the entrance of the Board Room.

TMRS is a public retirement system with more than 157,000 employee accounts in 866 cities. The System pays benefits to over 56,000 retired Texans and their survivors and administers a $23.7 billion trust fund.
